PROJECTS

• Fee Receipt Generator

Technology – Java, Apache POI, SQL In this project we created a Java application in which user will provide the input for fees payment. Then that will be stored in SQL database, when we click on generate receipt it will create a word file as well as PDF copy of the receipt which can be printed or sent through mail. And will also generate Excel sheet with all student data and fee details.

• Mental Health and Well-being Surveillance, Assessment, and Tracking Solution among Children

In this project, we created a Website. The project likely focuses on developing tools or systems to monitor, assess, and track the mental health of children, aiming to enhance overall well-being. The specifics would depend on the project's goals, methodologies, and the technology used. In this we used Html, CSS, React, Node Js, MongoDB. We created in VS Code

• Employee Management System

Technology – Java, SQL

In this project we created a Swing application where Employee Details will be managed. User can create new employee details, update the older ones or even delete it if not in use. Basic CRUD operations can be performed on Employee data.
